

Prologue: The Boy with the Demon Fox

1. Long ago, a terrifying monster known as the Nine-Tailed Demon Fox attacked Hidden Leaf Village.
2. The beast leveled mountains, crushed buildings, and caused immense casualties among the ninja.
3. To save the village, the leader, the Fourth Hokage, made the ultimate sacrifice using a forbidden technique.
4. He sealed the malicious spirit of the Nine-Tailed Fox inside the body of his newborn son.
5. That child was named Naruto Uzumaki, left an orphan to carry an unimaginable burden alone.
6. The Third Hokage reassumed leadership, decreeing that no one speak of the beast inside the boy.
7. Despite the secrecy, the adults of the village harbored resentment, seeing Naruto as the fox itself.
8. They passed this silent, cold prejudice down to their children, who actively ostracized Naruto.
9. Deprived of parental love and friendship, Naruto grew up isolated, lonely, and deeply desperate.
10. To catch anyone's attention, he resorted to pulling reckless pranks all over the village.
11. He defaced the sacred monument of the Hokage faces, constantly running from irritated ninja.
12. At the Ninja Academy, Naruto was an absolute failure, struggling with basic ninjutsu skills.
13. His signature failure was the Clone Jutsu, which always resulted in a pathetic, lifeless clone.
14. His classmate Sasuke Uchiha was the exact opposite: a brilliant prodigy, envy of everyone.
15. Sasuke carried his own deep darkness, being the sole survivor of the tragic Uchiha clan massacre.
16. Another classmate was Sakura Haruno, a smart girl whom Naruto harbored a massive crush on.
17. Sakura, however, was hopelessly infatuated with Sasuke, completely ignoring Naruto's antics.
18. Naruto failed the graduation exam yet again, feeling utterly crushed as others celebrated.
19. A deceptive Academy instructor named Mizuki took advantage of Naruto's extreme vulnerability.
20. Mizuki tricked the naive boy into stealing the sacred Scroll of Forbidden Seals that night.

The Awakening of Ninja Faith

21. Naruto hid in the forest, practicing a dangerous technique from the stolen scroll.
22. His main academy teacher, Iruka Umino, tracked him down, discovering Mizuki's betrayal.
23. Mizuki appeared, ambushing them and revealing the dark truth Naruto had never been told.
24. He shouted that Naruto was the feared Nine-Tailed Fox that killed Iruka's own parents.
25. Naruto was shattered, paralyzed by the horrific realization of why everyone hated him.
26. Mizuki hurled a giant shuriken at Naruto, but Iruka threw his body in front of it.
27. Bleeding heavily, Iruka wept, explaining he never blamed Naruto for the fox's past sins.

28. Iruka validated Naruto's pain, acknowledging how lonely and agonizing his life had been.
29. Moved by love and acceptance for the first time, Naruto found a surge of fierce resolve.
30. He stepped forward to protect Iruka, channeling massive chakra from his hidden reserves.
31. Naruto executed the Multi-Shadow Clone Jutsu, summoning thousands of solid, perfect clones.
32. The army of clones completely overwhelmed Mizuki, beating him into absolute submission.
33. Witnessing this incredible feat, Iruka proudly handed Naruto his very first ninja headband.
34. Naruto graduated, vowing that he would one day become Hokage so everyone would respect him.
35. The graduates were organized into three-man cells under the guidance of a Jounin leader.
36. Naruto, Sasuke, and Sakura were grouped together, officially forming the historic Team 7.
37. Their leader was Kakashi Hatake, the famous "Copy Ninja" who wore a mask covering his face.
38. Kakashi gave them a brutal survival test, tasking them with stealing two bells from him.
39. The test was designed to be impossible to complete individually, forcing them to turn on each other.
40. Naruto was tied to a post for breaking rules, and Kakashi strictly forbade giving him food.

Team 7 and the Land of Waves

41. Defying orders, Sasuke and Sakura shared their lunch with Naruto, realizing he needed strength.
42. Kakashi suddenly appeared in a burst of smoke, scolding them for disobeying his command.
43. Instead of failing them, he smiled, passing them and declaring a legendary ninja philosophy.
44. He told them: "Those who break the rules are scum, but those who abandon friends are worse."
45. With Team 7 official, they took on low-level chores that quickly bored the restless Naruto.
46. Demanding a real challenge, Naruto convinced the Hokage to grant them a higher C-rank mission.
47. They were assigned to escort a grumpy bridge builder named Tazuna back to the Land of Waves.
48. The mission quickly turned deadly when they were ambushed by hidden rogue ninja assassins.
49. Kakashi realized the mission was actually an A-rank danger, far too advanced for genin.
50. Tazuna confessed he couldn't afford the real price because a corrupt tycoon, Gato, controlled his homeland.
51. Team 7 chose to proceed, arriving in the mist-shrouded territory to protect the old builder.
52. They were soon confronted by Zabuza Momochi, the terrifying Demon of the Hidden Mist.
53. Zabuza wielded a massive Executioner's Blade and trapped Kakashi inside a Water Prison Jutsu.
54. With their master incapacitated, Naruto and Sasuke had to work together for the first time.
55. They formulated a brilliant strategy using a transformation jutsu disguised as a windmill shuriken.
56. Naruto bypassed Zabuza's defenses, forcing him to break the prison and release Kakashi.
57. Kakashi copied Zabuza's water jutsus, utterly defeating him before a mysterious mask-wearer intervened.

58. The youth, Haku, fake-killed Zabuza to rescue him, taking his body away to recover.
59. Kakashi knew Zabuza was alive and took Team 7 to Tazuna's house to train intently.
60. He taught them tree-climbing chakra control, forcing Naruto and Sasuke to push past exhaustion.

Tragedy on the Great Bridge

61. The final battle commenced on the unfinished bridge, surrounded by a thick, freezing mist.
62. Zabuza confronted Kakashi while Haku trapped Sasuke inside his lethal Crystal Ice Mirrors jutsu.
63. Naruto rushed into the mirrors blindly, getting trapped alongside Sasuke under a hail of needles.
64. Haku moved at supersonic speeds between the mirrors, slicing the two young ninja to pieces.
65. Sasuke awakened his clan's lineage power, the Sharingan, allowing him to track Haku's movements.
66. Sensing a fatal strike aimed at Naruto, Sasuke threw himself into the path of the ice needles.
67. Sasuke collapsed, appearing completely dead, telling Naruto he hated him but couldn't let him die.
68. Believing his friend was murdered, a terrifying, primal rage awoke deep inside Naruto.
69. Red, boiling chakra of the Nine-Tailed Fox erupted from Naruto, altering his physical appearance.
70. His wounds healed instantly, and he shattered Haku's unbreakable ice mirrors with pure force.
71. Naruto delivered a devastating punch to Haku, breaking his mask to reveal a gentle boy.
72. Haku explained he was merely a tool for Zabuza, finding meaning only in serving his master.
73. As Kakashi prepared to pierce Zabuza with his Lightning Blade, Haku jumped in the way.
74. Haku took the lethal blow to the heart, sacrificing his life to save a remorseless Zabuza.
75. Gato arrived with a massive army of mercenaries, mocking Haku's corpse and breaking his contract.
76. Naruto angrily yelled at Zabuza, demanding to know how he could feel nothing for Haku's loyalty.
77. Tears streamed down Zabuza's face as Naruto's words pierced his cold, mercenary exterior.
78. With both arms broken, Zabuza put a kunai in his mouth and charged into Gato's army.
79. He slaughtered dozens of men, cut off Gato's head, and collapsed next to Haku as snow fell.
80. Tazuna finished the bridge, naming it the Great Naruto Bridge in honor of the boy who saved them.

The Chuunin Exams Begin

81. Team 7 returned to the Hidden Leaf, feeling much more matured by their deadly experiences.
82. They were immediately entered into the prestigious Chuunin Selection Exams to advance their rank.
83. Elite genin from all over the world gathered, showcasing incredible and diverse ninja arts.
84. They met Rock Lee, a taijutsu expert who challenged Sasuke and easily overpowered him with speed.
85. They also encountered Gaara of the Desert, a creepy sand-wielding ninja from the Hidden Sand.
86. The first phase was a written test designed to force students to cheat without getting caught.

87. Naruto refused to cheat, leaving his paper completely blank out of stubborn honesty.
88. The final question tested their resolve; Naruto gave an inspiring speech, passing his entire room.
89. The second phase took place in the Forest of Death, a treacherous, wildlife-infested survival zone.
90. Teams had to steal matching Heaven and Earth scrolls from rival squads to pass through.
91. Inside the forest, Team 7 was stalked by a legendary, terrifying villain named Orochimaru.
92. Orochimaru was a rogue Leaf ninja seeking a perfect body to host his soul transmission jutsu.
93. He fought Team 7, easily suppressing Naruto and sealing away his access to the fox's chakra.
94. Sasuke fought desperately, but Orochimaru bit his neck, branding him with a Cursed Seal of Heaven.
95. Orochimaru vanished, leaving Sasuke in agonizing pain and Sakura to defend their unconscious bodies.
96. Sakura protected them against attacking Sand ninja until Rock Lee and Team 10 arrived to help.
97. Sasuke awoke, consumed by the dark, corrupting power of the Cursed Seal, brutalizing his enemies.
98. They managed to secure the scrolls with help from Kabuto, a suspicious senior exam taker.
99. Due to too many survivors, the examiners organized immediate individual preliminary elimination matches.
100. Sasuke fought through the agony of his Cursed Seal, using his skill to win his match.

Clashes of Destiny

101. Naruto was matched against Kiba Inuzuka and his ninja hound Akamaru in a fierce battle.
102. Using creative tactics and an accidental fart, Naruto defeated Kiba, surprising the entire crowd.
103. The most emotional match was between Neji Hyuga and his gentle cousin Hinata Hyuga.
104. Neji believed in absolute fatalism, brutally beating Hinata while preaching that losers never change.
105. Naruto watched in anger, wiping Hinata's blood off the floor and vowing to defeat Neji next.
106. Rock Lee fought Gaara in a legendary showdown of absolute physical speed against ultimate sand defense.
107. Lee dropped his massive training weights, moving so fast the naked eye couldn't track him.
108. He opened the Inner Gates, unleashing the Primary Lotus, but Gaara's sand armor saved him.
109. Gaara crushed Lee's left arm and leg, crippling him before Guy Sensei stopped the match.
110. A month of preparation was given before the final tournament matches in front of world leaders.
111. Kakashi took Sasuke to train privately, leaving Naruto to find a new mentor for himself.
112. Naruto met Jiraiya, a legendary perverted hermit who was actually one of the three Great Sannin.
113. Jiraiya realized Naruto's potential, unblocking his chakra flow and teaching him the Summoning Jutsu.
114. To force Naruto to tap into the Nine-Tail's red chakra, Jiraiya pushed him down a deep ravine.
115. In mid-air, Naruto met the giant fox in his mind, demanding its power to survive the fall.

116. Naruto successfully summoned Gamabunta, a colossal, short-tempered ninja toad king.
117. The finals began, and Naruto's opening match was against the bitter genius, Neji Hyuga.
118. Neji blocked all of Naruto's chakra points using his clan's signature Gentle Fist style.
119. Naruto refused to give up, tapping into the Fox's chakra to forcefully reopen his blocked points.
120. He tricked Neji with a clever underground tunnel clone maneuver, knocking him out cold.

The Invasion of the Hidden Leaf

121. Naruto proved to Neji that destiny could be changed through sheer effort and willpower.
122. Sasuke arrived late for his highly anticipated match against the dangerous Gaara of the Desert.
123. Sasuke revealed his new technique, the Chidori, a piercing blade of concentrated lightning chakra.
124. He pierced Gaara's absolute sand sphere, drawing blood and causing Gaara to panic wildly.
125. Suddenly, a massive genjutsu fell over the stadium; the Hidden Sand and Sound launched an invasion.
126. Orochimaru trapped the Third Hokage inside a barrier, initiating a deadly duel between masters.
127. Orochimaru used a forbidden jutsu to resurrect the First and Second Hokage to fight for him.
128. Meanwhile, Gaara fled into the forest, transforming into the giant One-Tailed Shukaku demon.
129. Naruto, Sakura, and Shikamaru pursued him, but Gaara captured Sakura in a crushing sand grip.
130. To save Sakura, Naruto fought the transforming Gaara, summoning the giant toad Gamabunta.
131. A colossal battle ensued, with Naruto waking Gaara from his demonic sleep with a massive headbutt.
132. Naruto crawled toward Gaara, expressing deep empathy because they both knew the pain of isolation.
133. Gaara was profoundly changed by Naruto's love for his friends, questioning his own murderous path.
134. Back at the village, the aging Third Hokage utilized the deadly Reaper Death Seal jutsu.
135. He sacrificed his life to seal away Orochimaru's arms, stripping the villain of all his ninjutsu.
136. The invasion failed, but the Hidden Leaf Village wept heavily for the loss of their Hokage.
137. Following the funeral, a mysterious criminal organization named the Akatsuki made its first move.
138. Itachi Uchiha, Sasuke's older brother, infiltrated the village alongside the fish-like swordsman Kisame.
139. Their objective was to capture Naruto to extract the precious Nine-Tailed Fox sealed inside him.
140. Kakashi and the other Jounin fought them, but Itachi trapped Kakashi in a horrific mental genjutsu.

The Search for Tsunade

141. Jiraiya intervened, and the Akatsuki duo retreated, heading out to find Naruto on the road.
142. Jiraiya took Naruto on a journey to find Tsunade, the third Sannin, to become the next Hokage.
143. Sasuke learned Itachi was back and hunted him down, filled with decades of murderous rage.
144. Sasuke found Itachi cornering Naruto in a motel, charging his brother with a furious Chidori.

145. Itachi effortlessly deflected the attack, breaking Sasuke's wrist and mentally torturing him with genjutsu.
146. Itachi told Sasuke he was still far too weak because he lacked enough hatred in his heart.
147. Jiraiya arrived and used a toad technique, forcing Itachi and Kisame to flee the scene.
148. Sasuke was left comatose, his mind shattered by the reappearance of his terrifying older brother.
149. On their journey, Jiraiya began teaching Naruto the Rasengan, a dense spinning ball of pure chakra.
150. Naruto struggled immensely, unable to control the rotation and density of the chakra in one hand.
151. He creatively bypassed this limitation by using a shadow clone to spin the chakra for him.
152. They located Tsunade, who was gambling away her life, drowning in grief over her dead loved ones.
153. Tsunade mocked the title of Hokage, provoking Naruto into a fight that he easily lost.
154. Naruto showed her his incomplete Rasengan, and Tsunade made a wager that he couldn't master it in a week.
155. Orochimaru appeared, offering to resurrect Tsunade's dead lover if she healed his cursed arms.
156. Tsunade refused, leading to a massive battle involving all three legendary Sannin and their summons.
157. During the fight, Naruto protected Tsunade from Kabuto, successfully landing his very first perfect Rasengan.
158. Amazed by his determination, Tsunade accepted the mantle, becoming the Fifth Hokage of the village.
159. They returned to the Leaf, and Tsunade used her medical expertise to fully heal Sasuke and Rock Lee.
160. Sasuke woke up in the hospital, his ego completely bruised by Naruto's rapid, incredible growth.

The Valley of the End

161. Sasuke challenged Naruto to a roof duel, their Chidori and Rasengan about to collide destructively.
162. Kakashi intervened at the last second, throwing both boys into separate water tanks nearby.
163. Sasuke noticed Naruto's tank was completely blown out from the back, proving the Rasengan was stronger.
164. Deeply insecure and desperate for power, Sasuke was approached by Orochimaru's Sound Four ninja.
165. They offered him the power of the Cursed Seal's second level if he abandoned the Leaf Village.
166. Sasuke chose vengeance over friendship, slipping out of the village under the cover of night.
167. Sakura tried to stop him at the exit, begging him to stay, but he knocked her out.
168. Tsunade ordered Shikamaru to assemble a genin rescue squad to retrieve the rogue Uchiha.
169. Shikamaru picked Naruto, Neji, Choji, and Kiba, setting off on a desperate pursuit.
170. The Sound Four protected Sasuke's coffin container, forcing the Leaf ninja into brutal solo battles.
171. Choji used his clan's red calorie pill to defeat Jirobo, collapsing near death afterward.
172. Neji utilized every ounce of his gentle fist to defeat the spider-like Kidomaru, getting gravely wounded.
173. Kiba and his dog fought Sakon and Ukon, while Shikamaru used his shadows against Tayuya.

174. Kimimaro, a dying loyalist of Orochimaru, intervened, nearly killing Shikamaru and a recovered Rock Lee.
175. The Sand trio—Gaara, Temari, and Kankuro—arrived as allies, saving the Leaf squad from total slaughter.
176. Naruto finally caught up to Sasuke at the historic Valley of the End, begging him to return.
177. Sasuke refused, stating that cutting his bond with Naruto would unlock his Mangekyou Sharingan.
178. A legendary, earth-shattering battle commenced between the two best friends at the waterfall.
179. Naruto tapped into his one-tailed demon cloak, while Sasuke activated his dark, winged Cursed Seal state.
180. Their ultimate attacks collided in a massive sphere of purple energy: Chidori versus Rasengan.
181. Sasuke won the clash, leaving an unconscious Naruto in the rain as he walked toward Orochimaru.
182. Kakashi rescued Naruto, bringing the broken squad back to the village to heal their deep wounds.
183. Jiraiya told Naruto he was leaving for three years of training to prepare for the Akatsuki threat.
184. Naruto packed his bags, leaving the village with Jiraiya, determined to become strong enough to save Sasuke.
185. This marked the end of the first era, paving the way for a much darker, mature chapter.

Part II: Shippuden — The Return

186. Three years passed, and an older, taller Naruto returned to the bustling Hidden Leaf Village.
187. He reunited with Sakura and Kakashi, demonstrating his improved skills in another bell test.
188. Meanwhile, the Akatsuki moved aggressively, invading the Hidden Sand to capture Gaara, now Kazekage.
189. Deidara and Sasori defeated Gaara, dragging his body away to extract the One-Tailed demon.
190. Team 7 rushed to the Sand Village to assist, tracking the Akatsuki to their hidden cave.
191. Sakura and the elder Chiyo fought Sasori, a master puppeteer who had turned his own body into a puppet.
192. After an intense battle of tactical prowess, they defeated Sasori, who left a tip about Orochimaru.
193. Naruto and Kakashi pursued Deidara, with Kakashi revealing his own new Kamui Mangekyou Sharingan.
194. They retrieved Gaara's body, but the Akatsuki had already completed the painful extraction ritual.
195. Gaara was dead, causing Naruto to weep bitterly over the cruel fate shared by all Jinchuriki.
196. Lady Chiyo used a forbidden resurrection jutsu, sacrificing her own life to bring Gaara back.
197. With a new lead on Sasuke, Team 7 was reformed with new members: Sai and captain Yamato.
198. Sai was a soulless assassin from the Root division, causing immediate friction with Naruto's emotional style.
199. They met Kabuto at the bridge, which quickly turned into a trap orchestrated by Orochimaru.
200. Seeing Orochimaru, Naruto lost control, manifesting four tails of the fox and hurting Sakura blindly.

The Shadow of the Uchiha

201. Yamato used the First Hokage's wood style to suppress the fox, sealing the red chakra away.
202. They infiltrated Orochimaru's hidden lair, finally finding Sasuke standing on a high ledge.
203. Sasuke had grown incredibly powerful, cold, and completely indifferent to his old comrades.
204. He suppressed the fox inside Naruto's mind with his Sharingan and prepared to eliminate Team 7.
205. Orochimaru stopped him, advising they let the Leaf live to wipe out more Akatsuki members.
206. Sasuke vanished again, leaving Naruto devastated but completely motivated to undergo specialized training.
207. Kakashi taught Naruto about change in chakra nature, discovering Naruto's affinity was Wind.
208. Using thousands of shadow clones to accelerate time, Naruto trained to create a brand-new jutsu.
209. Meanwhile, Akatsuki members Hidan and Kakuzu invaded, killing Asuma Sarutobi in a brutal fight.
210. Shikamaru led a revenge squad, using his brilliant intellect to blow up the immortal Hidan.
211. Naruto arrived on the battlefield, unleashing his completed jutsu: the devastating Wind Style: Rasenshuriken.
212. The attack destroyed Kakuzu's cells on a microscopic level, securing a massive victory for the Leaf.
213. Elsewhere, Sasuke turned on a weakened Orochimaru, absorbing him rather than letting him take his body.
214. Sasuke formed his own squad, Hebi, with the singular goal of tracking down and killing Itachi.
215. The Akatsuki leader, Pain, ordered the hunt for Itachi to proceed without interference.
216. Jiraiya infiltrated the Hidden Rain Village alone, discovering that Pain was his former orphan student, Nagato.
217. Pain wielded the Rinnegan, the ultimate god-like eyes, controlling six separate reanimated corpses.
218. Jiraiya fought valiantly, unlocking Sage Mode, but was overwhelmed by the Six Paths of Pain.
219. Before dying, Jiraiya etched a coded message onto a toad's back, sending it to Naruto.
220. Jiraiya sank into the deep dark water, smiling as he left the future of the world to his student.

The Tale of Itachi and the Assault on Leaf

221. Sasuke finally met Itachi in an epic, reality-bending Uchiha duel of absolute visual genjutsu.
222. Sasuke unleashed his ultimate lightning attack, Kirin, but Itachi defended using the spectral Susanoo armor.
223. Itachi advanced on a terrified Sasuke, only to gently poke his forehead before collapsing dead.
224. The masked Akatsuki member, Tobi, rescued Sasuke and revealed a horrific, hidden historical truth.
225. Itachi was actually a double agent who slaughtered his clan on orders to prevent a violent civil war.
226. He spared Sasuke out of pure love, framing himself as a villain so Sasuke would become a hero.
227. Shattered by grief, Sasuke awakened his Mangekyou Sharingan and vowed to completely destroy the Hidden Leaf.

- 228. Naruto learned of Jiraiya's death and fell into a deep, silent depression, crying on a bench.
- 229. He decided to travel to Mount Myoboku to learn Senjutsu, mastering the balance of natural energy.
- 230. While Naruto was away, Pain arrived at the Hidden Leaf, obliterating everything in his path.
- 231. Kakashi fought the Deva Path of Pain, sacrificing his remaining chakra to save Chouji before dying.
- 232. Pain met Tsunade, demanding Naruto's location, before unleashing a colossal Almighty Push technique.
- 233. The entire Hidden Leaf Village was instantly reduced to a giant, smoking crater in the ground.
- 234. Naruto vanished into the crater via a giant summoning, donning a red cloak in perfect Sage Mode.
- 235. He systematically dismantled the Paths of Pain using his brand-new Sage Art: Rasenshuriken.
- 236. The final Deva Path pinned Naruto to the ground with black rods, paralyzing his movements.
- 237. Hinata stepped forward to protect Naruto, confessing her deep love before Pain brutally struck her down.
- 238. Exploding into pure madness, Naruto unlocked six, then eight tails of the fox, destroying the landscape.
- 239. Inside his mind, Naruto was about to tear off the final seal when the Fourth Hokage appeared.
- 240. Minato Namikaze revealed he was Naruto's father, restoring the seal and expressing absolute faith in him.

The Five Kage Summit

- 241. Calming down, Naruto defeated the final Pain and tracked down the real wheel-bound user, Nagato.
- 242. Instead of killing him, Naruto listened to Nagato's tragic childhood story about the endless cycle of war.
- 243. Naruto quoted Jiraiya's book, promising he would find a way to break the cycle of hatred forever.
- 244. Moved by Naruto's resolve, Nagato used his final life force to perform the Gedo Art of Resurrection.
- 245. Every single citizen killed in the invasion, including Kakashi, was brought back to life.
- 246. Naruto returned to the village as an absolute hero, finally gaining the validation he sought since childhood.
- 247. Meanwhile, Sasuke attacked the Five Kage Summit in the Land of Iron, fighting the world's leaders.
- 248. Tobi appeared at the summit, revealing his true plan: Project Tsuki no Me (Eye of the Moon).
- 249. He declared the Fourth Great Ninja War against all nations to capture the remaining two tailed beasts.
- 250. Naruto met Sasuke once again, realizing their final clash would likely result in both of their deaths.
- 251. To keep Naruto safe, the Allied Shinobi Forces hid him on a giant moving turtle island in the Cloud.
- 252. There, Naruto met Killer Bee, the Eight-Tails Jinchuriki, who agreed to teach him control.
- 253. Naruto entered a chamber to fight the Nine-Tails for its chakra, nearly getting consumed by hatred.
- 254. His mother, Kushina Uzumaki, appeared in his subconscious, revealing her love and their family history.
- 255. With her help, Naruto defeated the fox, unlocking his brilliant yellow Nine-Tails Chakra Mode.

The Fourth Great Ninja War

- 256. Naruto sensed the war happening outside and broke out of the island alongside Killer Bee to join.
- 257. Kabuto joined forces with Tobi, using the Reanimation Jutsu to resurrect thousands of dead legendary ninja.
- 258. The battlefield became a chaotic nightmare of fighting past friends, teachers, and ancient Kage.
- 259. Naruto's shadow clones spread across all battlefields, using their sensory abilities to detect hidden white Zetsu clones.
- 260. Itachi broke free from Kabuto's control using a pre-programmed eye jutsu, teaming up with Sasuke.
- 261. The Uchiha brothers defeated Kabuto, forcing him to undo the massive Reanimation Jutsu across the world.
- 262. Before his soul faded away, Itachi showed Sasuke the full truth, saying: "I will love you always."
- 263. On the main battlefield, Tobi was revealed to be Obito Uchiha, Kakashi's old teammate thought dead.
- 264. Obito resurrected the real, legendary Madara Uchiha, who proceeded to single-handedly slaughter the Allied forces.
- 265. Naruto fully bonded with his fox, learning its true name: Kurama, unlocking the complete Kurama Mode.
- 266. Obito and Madara summoned the colossal Ten-Tails, causing unimaginable casualties on a global scale.
- 267. Neji Hyuga sacrificed his life to shield Naruto and Hinata from a volley of wooden spikes.
- 268. Holding Neji's cold body, Naruto almost lost his spirit, but Hinata reminded him of his ninja way.
- 269. The four dead Hokage were resurrected by Orochimaru, who chose to assist Sasuke in finding answers.
- 270. Sasuke arrived on the battlefield, declaring he would become Hokage to revolutionize the corrupt system.
- 271. Team 7 was officially reunited on the battlefield, fighting side-by-side against the Ten-Tails clones.
- 272. Obito became the Ten-Tails Jinchuriki, but Naruto and the alliance managed to pull the beasts out of him.
- 273. Madara betrayed Obito, extracting the Nine-Tails completely from Naruto, leaving the boy dying.
- 274. Sasuke was also stabbed through the heart by Madara, both main heroes hanging on the brink of death.
- 275. In the spirit realm, Naruto and Sasuke met Hagoromo Otsutsuki, the legendary Sage of Six Paths.

The Divine Tree and the Ultimate Threat

- 276. The Sage revealed they were reincarnations of his rival sons, Asura and Indra, destined to fight forever.
- 277. He granted Naruto the Six Paths Senjutsu and Sasuke the unique Rinnegan in his left eye.
- 278. They woke up, returning to the battlefield with god-like powers to push Madara to his absolute limit.
- 279. Madara flew to the moon, successfully casting the Infinite Tsukuyomi, trapping the entire world in cocoons.
- 280. Only Team 7 was shielded from the light by Sasuke's protective Rinnegan Susanoo wing armor.
- 281. Suddenly, Black Zetsu stabbed Madara in the back, using his body to resurrect Kaguya Otsutsuki.
- 282. Kaguya was the progenitor of all chakra on Earth, an alien goddess possessing absolute dominion over dimensions.

283. She shifted Team 7 through volatile dimensions of lava, ice, acid, and high-gravity desert plains.
284. Obito sacrificed his life to save Kakashi and Naruto, finally redeeming himself before turning to ash.
285. Kakashi received temporary dual Mangekyou Sharingan from Obito's spirit, summoning a perfect Susanoo.
286. Working in flawless synchronization, Team 7 coordinated a brilliant strike to corner the goddess.
287. Sakura landed a massive punch from above, driving Kaguya down into Naruto and Sasuke's palms.
288. They activated the Six Paths Chibaku Tensei, permanently sealing Kaguya away and saving the universe.
289. The tailed beasts were freed, and the spirits of the ancient Hokage returned peacefully to the afterlife.
290. The war was officially won, but the centuries-old ideological conflict was not yet resolved.

The Final Battle at the Waterfall

291. Sasuke suddenly trapped all the Tailed Beasts inside Genjutsu, announcing his dark vision for the world.
292. He planned to execute the Kage and execute a solo revolution, becoming the world's singular dark anchor.
293. Naruto refused to let his brother become a monster, agreeing to settle their fate where it began.
294. They stood atop the statues of Madara and Hashirama at the legendary Valley of the End.
295. A brutal, raw, and deeply emotional taijutsu brawl commenced, lasting until sunset drained them completely.
296. Sasuke stole Naruto's chakra to fire his ultimate Indra's Arrow, met by Naruto's massive Rasenshuriken.
297. The collision obliterated the statues, leaving both boys exhausted, bruised, and bleeding on the floor.
298. In a final desperation move, Sasuke charged a Chidori while Naruto formed one last simple Rasengan.
299. Their attacks clashed, creating an explosion that completely shattered the rock beneath them.
300. They woke up the next morning lying side by side, unable to move due to severe blood loss.
301. Both Naruto and Sasuke had lost their dominant arms from the sheer force of the final explosion.
302. Sasuke looked at the sky, asking Naruto why he went so far just to stay in his life.
303. Naruto replied simply: "Because I'm your friend, and seeing you hurt hurts me too."
304. Sasuke wept openly, finally conceding defeat and accepting Naruto's unwavering, unconditional bond.
305. They joined hands, weaving the hand sign required to completely undo the global Infinite Tsukuyomi.
306. The world awoke from the cocoons, and the long era of tragic ninja wars came to a close.
307. Sasuke was pardoned for his crimes but chose to travel the world to atone for his past sins.
308. Before leaving, he refused a prosthetic arm, poking Sakura's forehead as a promise of return.
309. Naruto received a prosthetic arm grown from the First Hokage's cells, returning to his daily duties.
310. Years passed, and Naruto grew into a wise, mature leader, studying hard to earn his dream position.

Epilogue: The Legacy Fulfilled

311. A generation later, Peace reigned across the newly modernized, highly technological Hidden Leaf Village.
312. Kakashi stepped down as the Sixth Hokage, paving the way for the inauguration of the Seventh.
313. Naruto Uzumaki stood atop the roof, looking out at a peaceful village that once completely despised him.
314. He had married Hinata Hyuga, and together they raised two children: Boruto and Himawari.
315. Sasuke continued protecting the village from the shadows as the "Supporting Kage," staying connected.
316. The lonely orphan boy who once pulled pranks for attention had become the savior of the world.
317. His face was carved permanently into the mountain rock, a testament to his unbreakable ninja way.
318. He had broken the cycle of hatred, proving that love, loyalty, and hard work could conquer all.
319. The story of the boy with the demon fox concluded, leaving a lasting legacy for generations to come.
320. Naruto Uzumaki had finally fulfilled his promise, living forever as the legendary Seventh Hokage.
